

HELP SHAPE <sup>THE</sup> FUTURE OF THE AGU FALL MEETING

The AGU Meetings Committee seeks an individual to fill the position of chair of the Fall Meeting Program Committee. The Fall Meeting is the premier meeting of the Earth and space sciences community. Candidates must be highly organized and dynamic and have strong leadership abilities. The Fall Meeting chair also serves as an ex officio member of the AGU Meetings Committee. The time commitment is approximately 8% of one's time, depending on management style. The chair receives an annual honorarium of $1500.00, and expenses are paid to attend relevant meetings.

This position is responsible for the 2011, 2012, and 2013 Fall Meetings. The chair will

- Preside over the Union-appointed Program Committee
- Ensure that excellent scientific programs are produced for Union sessions
- Work with section and focus group committee members to ensure the development of both disciplinary and interdisciplinary sessions
- Have complete authority for the arrangement of the scientific program

For additional information or to be considered for this position, please send a curriculum vitae with a letter of interest to Brenda Weaver, Director of Meetings, at bweaver@agu.org. The Meetings Committee will select candidates to interview for the position. Telephone interviews will be conducted on 3 or 7 September 2010.

Deadline for receipt of applications is 10 August 2010.
